

2017 NAMA NOMINEES TO BE ANNOUNCED ON 15 MARCH – NICE RESTAURANT

Windhoek - The Namibian Annual Music Awards, the most sought after social event on the Namibian calendar is proud to announce that the NAMA 2017 nominees will be announced on 15 March at NICE Restaurant in the capital.

Along with the announcement of the nominees, the NAMA 2017 organizing committee will also reveal the official sponsors for the event as well as prize monies.

This year's NAMA received a total of 802 entries, with the final announcement of selected nominees to be made based on entrants that met all the requirements and underwent a vigorous selection process by the NAMA Steering Committee.

Last year, the overall prize money for both male and female Artist of the Year Award was worth N$640 000.00. This included courtesy cars sponsored by Toyota corolla as well as the monetary value, showcasing the splendor and grandeur of the annual music awards.

Six years into the Namibian Annual Music Awards, the event has grown in prize monies, broadcast quality and in nominees and entrants as well performing artists making their way to the glamorous stage.

nbc Acting Chief Commercial Officer, Umbi Karuaihe-Upi stated: "Preparations for the main event are well underway and reaching the point of announcing the nominees means we are getting closer and closer to the big day." She added that the public should keep an eye on the official NAMA website and social media sites as the host town will be next on the announcement list.
